++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Sunday, band of rain, sleet, snow spreading from west.

This Evening and Tonight:
Residual wintry showers will fade away, and most places will become clear with a sharp frost developing and perhaps some patchy freezing fog. Icy stretches will form on untreated surfaces. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Sunday:
Starting with sunny spells for eastern areas, and any freezing fog clearing. Soon turning cloudier from west with rain, sleet, snow moving east, potentially giving some significant accumulations in places. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday frosty start, any patchy freezing fog slowly clearing, then sunny spells.
Tuesday frosty start, but cloud, rain and eventually milder conditions arriving.
Wednesday, further rain, strong winds later. Milder.
